No 1243.

Leghorn, May 23. O. S.

LETTERS from good Hands at Smyrna, say, That the Rebel Sare Bey Oglu has been oblig'd to abandon the Castle of Ghonia, and is retir'd with his Adherents towards Philadelphia; and that he has made Proposals to the Porte for their Submission, which 'tis believ'd will be accepted.

Vienna, May 30. O. S. We are assur'd that Count vonneval, after his Return from the Place of his exile to Constantinople, went to the Army to join the Grand Vizier; and that the Marquis de Villeveuve, the French Ambassador at the Porte, was arriv'd at Adrianople to settle the Preliminaries of the Peace with the Grand Vizier. The Court has not receiv'd the least Advice of the Russians marching into Poland for Transylvania. Their Imperial Majesties, and the Great Dutchess of Tuscany, have receiv'd on the Great Duke to put off his Departure for the Army; and 'tis confirm'd that the Velt Marshal Philippi will not go thither this Year by Reason of his ill State of Health. Several Persons who pretend to know the Pedigree of the new Grand Vizier, say, he was born at Olmutz in Moravia; that being bred to the Trade of his Father, viz. a Gunner, and falling, when young, into the Hands of the Turks, they made him Prisoner, and carried him to Constantinople, where he embrac'd Mahometism, and rose by Degrees to the Rank of Bashaw.

Hague, June 12. O. S. They write from Peterburg, that after the Consummation of the Marriage of Duke Anthony Ulric of Brunswick to Princess Ann, he is to be declar'd Stadtholder General of the Russian Monarchy; and that, in the mean Time, the Princess has the Title given her at Court of Imperial Highness.

They write from Paris, that a Storm lately happen'd near Fontainebleau, by which the Village of Calmier was almost laid under Water; and that there were no less than eighteen People drown'd, with a great many Cattle, and several Houses wash'd away.

FOREIGN PORTS.

Elfenour, June 13. N. S. Since my last came in the Ships commanded by the following Masters, viz. On the 11th, Thomas Dade: On the 12th, Joshua Raven, both from Stockholm for London; Robert Crawford, from Leith for the Baltick; George Sturges, from Copenhagen for Frederickstadt; Thomas Cooper, from Bergen for Petersburg; Samuel Davis, and Thomas Chaffers, from Liverpool for Dantzick: On the 13th, John Moses, from London for Petersburg.

Those bound for the Baltick are sailed. Yesterday the Wind came to the S. E. and continues, whereby the outward-bound are sailed.

Elfenour, June 16. N. S. Since my last came in the Ships commanded by the following Masters, viz. On the 13th, Alexander Reed, from Elfenor for Dantzick: On the 14th, George Hooper, from Stockholm; Richard Fendick, from Dantzick for London; John Bewick, from Copenhagen for Gottenburgh; and Robert Fowler, from Norkoping for London: On the 15th, Blashall Taylor, from Hull for Dantzick: On the 16th, John Keeble, from London for Petersburg; George Mandi'on, from Hull for Stockholm; John Chien, from Kirkaldie for Dantzick; William Combe, from Hull; and Roger Curling, from Ramsgate for Petersburg; Nicholas Sanderlon, from Sunderland for Riga; Robert Williston, from Yarmouth for Petersburg; and William Noble, from Blyth for Copenhagen.

Those bound for the Baltick are sailed with the Wind at N. W. which continues; it has blown very hard these two Days, whereby the outward-bound are still here.

HOME PORTS.

Dover, June 15. Arrived the St. Elizabeth, Campbell, from Jamaica.

Deal, June 15. Wind N. E. The three Men of War and Merchant Ships as in my last remain.

Gravesend, June 15. Passed by the Neptune, Dade, from Stockholm; and the King William, Sanders, from East India.

L O N D O N.

Last Saturday the three Regiments of Foot Guards passed in Review in Hyde Park before his Majesty; after which they fired in Platoons by a Signal given by Colonel Pulteney from the Top of a Caravan, when his Majesty was pleased to express a great Satisfaction at their Appearance and good Order; and about one o'Clock his Majesty, the Duke and the Princesses returned to Kensington.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Day preached before his Majesty, the Duke and the Princesses in the Royal Chapel at Kensington.

Last Week died at his Seat at Highworth in Wilts, Thomas Ewer, Esq; a Gentleman of a large Estate in the said County.

We hear that his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland will be made General of the Ordnance.

And that the Right Hon. the Lord Harrington is appointed Colonel of the Regiment of Horse Guards Blue.

The following Gentlemen are appointed Lieutenants of the Namure, viz. Mr. Hughes, First; Mr. Moyston, Second; Lord George Graham, Third; Mr. Goff, Fourth; Mr. Sturt, Fifth; and Mr. Lawton, Sixth.

Last Thursday died at Havering in Essex, Captain Thomas Phillips, Captain in the Royal Regiment of Dragoons commanded by General Gore.

Last Week died at Shalfal-Mannion in the County of Salop, George Kennett, Esq; who was formerly Deputy Secretary of State to King William the Third.

On Friday last a Journeyman Taylor was committed to Newgate for ravishing a young Child of Five Years old; by which barbarous Usage the Child died in two Hours after.

A Proclamation was issued out by his Majesty in Council on Friday last, for recalling and prohibiting Seamen from serving Foreign Princes and States, and strictly charging and commanding all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, Seamen, &c. (being natural-born Subjects) who are in the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State, to quit such Foreign Service, and return Home: As also forbidding all Masters of Ships, Pilots, Mariners, &c. from henceforth to forbear entering themselves into the Pay or Service of any Foreign Prince or State whatsoever, without special Licence first had and obtained; and the Offenders to the contrary will be punish'd to the utmost Severity of the Law.

As was also a Proclamation for encouraging Seamen and Landmen to enter themselves on board his Majesty's Ships of War. And that all such Seamen and able-bodied Landmen who on or since the 1st Day of this Instant June have voluntarily entered, or on or before the 14th Day of July next shall voluntarily enter themselves in his Majesty's Service, shall be assur'd of receiving Six Months Pay certain, although it should happen that there should be no Occasion for their Service for so long a Time.

Proposals for Printing by Subscription

A very beautiful and correct Edition of

THE Works of the late Rev. Mr.

JOHN FLAVEL, in the following Manner, viz.

That Eleven Sheets be deliver'd every Saturday to the Subscribers at the Price of One Shilling only; which (considering the Goodness of the Paper, and beautiful Character, with which the whole Work will be printed) will be one of the cheapest, and best printed Books, that has been proposed, in this Way, to the Publick.

If any Persons are willing to become Subscribers for the Whole at once, they may pay down Half a Guinea upon the delivering in their Names; the same upon the Delivery of the First Volume; and the Remainder upon the completing the Whole.

Subscriptions are taken in by D. Midwinter, in St. Paul's Church Yard; R. Ware, T. Longman, C. Hitch, J. Osborne, J. Wood, in Pater-noster Row; T. Cox, under the Royal-Exchange; A. Ward, in Little-Britain; R. Heery, J. Oswald, and J. Davidson, in the Poultry; J. King, in Moorfields; and J. Hutton, without Temple-Bar. Where Proposals may be had.

N. B. The first Number will be publish'd on Saturday the 4th of August next.

This Day is publish'd,

LYSIE ORATIONES & Fragmenta

Græce & Latine ad fidem Codicum MSS. recensuit, notis criticis, interpretatione nova, ceteroque Apparatu, necessario donavit JOHANNES TAYLOR, A. M. Col. Dio. Joan. Cant. Soc. Academiæ olim a Bibliothecis, hodie a Commentariis, accedunt Cl. JER. MARKLANDI, Col. Dio. Petr. Soc. Conjecturae, ex officina Gulii. Bowyer, in ædibus olim Carmelesticiis.

This Work having, by many unforeseen Improvements, &c. encroach'd above thirty Sheets beyond the Terms of the Proposals, the Editor hopes that those Gentlemen, who have been so kind as to encourage it, will not think it much to advance upon the second Payment Three Shillings per Book for the small Paper, and Five for the large, which will not raise the whole to Two-pence per Sheet for the former, or Three-pence for the latter.

The first Payment for the Small Paper was Six Shillings, the second will be Nine.

The first Payment for the large Paper was Nine Shillings, the second will be Fourteen.

N. B. The whole Impression being near subscrib'd for, that the Editor may be at Liberty to dispose of the few remaining Copies, Gentlemen are desir'd to send for their Books, as soon as they can conveniently, to Mess. Valliant at the Ship in the Strand, Samuel Harding on the Pavement in St. Martin's Lane, Charles Bathurst at the Middle-Temple Gate, and the Editor at the Publick Library of the University of Cambridge.

At which Places may be had,
STATH SYLVA, per eundem Jer. Markland.

This Day is Published,

(Beautifully Printed in Four neat Pocket Volumes, illustrated with 122 Copper-Plates)

The Fourth Edition, of

SPECTACLE DE LA NATURE:

Or, NATURE DISPLAY'D. Being Discourses on such Particulars of Natural History as were thought most proper to excite the Curiosity and form the Minds of Youth.

Translated from the Original FRENCH, with complete Indexes to each Volume.

By S. HUMPHREYS.

Printed for J. and J. Pemberton in Fleet-street; R. Franklin in Covent-Garden; and C. Davis in Pater-noster-Row.

Where may be had, lately published,

The Four Volumes in Octavo, printed on a larger Letter, illustrated with 122 Copper-Plates.

N. B. The Fourth Volume in Octavo and Twelvevolumes may be had separate.

N. B. One Hodges, a Bookfeller, at the Sign of the Looking-Glass upon London-Bridge, having, on the Encouragement given to the above Performance, publish'd a Book, intitled, Nature Delineated, which he calls a New Translation of the universally admired Spectacle de la Nature; 'tis hereby submitted to the Publick, whether the said Hodges has exhibited a Translation or an Abridgment of it:

For in Vol. I. he has left out two curious and ingenious Letters on the Extent and Bounds of Reason; which important Subject takes up at least 20 Pages together in the Original. In Vol. II. the whole Plan of the Work is omitted, which consists of several Pages more. In Vol. III. the Useful Reflections upon the Whole are entirely left out, which takes up near 60 Pages in the Original, and are a very instructive and delightful Dissertation, 'on Natural and Revealed Religion; on the Attributes of God; on the Generation and Instinct of Plants and Animals; on the Souls of Beasts; on Mankind's Desire of Immortality; on the Universal Deluge; on the Nature of Light; on the Stars, the milky Way and the Rainbow; on Fire, Metals, Glass, &c.' In Vol. IV. where indeed there are not so many Omissions of several Pages successively, as in each of the others, he has reduc'd 183 Pages of the Original to 196 Pages in English. And, instead of an Alphabetical Index to each Volume, so absolutely necessary for a Work of this Kind, he has only a General Table of Contents.

In fine, Many beautiful and useful Passages are so curtail'd and mangled in all the 4 Volumes of Nature Delineated, that when they are particularly pointed out to the World (which will be done very soon) some People may be inclin'd perhaps to say, as others have done already, that the Title of Nature Distorted would have been more suitable to that Performance.

An Infallible CURE

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men,
By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS;
Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolifick in a most wonderful Manner.

Hundreds of Ladies who were deem'd incurably Barren, and very many who thought themselves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Imbecility of Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, rouse, firm, and increase the Spirit, invigorate the Nerves, restore perfect Warmth, and cause a sparkling Glaciness and ardent Course to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Functions, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as do the appropriate to Generation, and do infinitely cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Causesoever proceeding, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Conducive to the Digestion, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond anything known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.

CONSUMPTIONS of all Sorts,

ASTHMA's, and all Disorders of the Breast and Lungs,

Directly and infallibly cured by the GREAT CHYMICAL ELIXIR,

WHICH has restored so many Thousands labouring under the deepest Consumptions and most deplorable Asthma's to perfect Health and Strength in a few Days Time, after all other the most celebrated Medicines and Medicines had been try'd in vain.

It at once strikes at, and absolutely eradicates the first Principle or Cause of Consumptions, whether of the Lungs or of any other Kind, as also of Asthma's, or Shortness of Breath, reduces the vicious Ferment of the Blood and Juices, corrects the acrid Sales which erode the Lungs, frees them from all obstructing Viscosities, and does more real Good in one Day than any other Medicine whatever can in ten.

It assuredly retrieves the Patient, tho' reduc'd to a mere Skeleton; and immediately cures the most tedious, and almost suffocating Coughs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Shortness of Breath, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain, or Weight in the Breast, Spitting of Blood, Soreness of the Stomach, Throat, or Windpipe; also Catarrhs, or Disruptions of the Kidneys, and all Pictical and Asthmatic Effects, Hectick Fevers, Night Sweats, and Diarrhæas, or Loosenesses, in a pleasant and most agreeable Manner.

It is balsamick, healing and strengthening beyond Comparison, restores in all inward Wastings, Weakness, and Depletion of Constitution whatever, perfectly cures Ulcers in the Lungs or in any other internal Part, causes free and easy Respiration or long Breathing, and speedily and infallibly cures ASTHMA's, and all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, be they ever so bad, without the least Disorder, Trouble or Constraint, and is indeed the only true Remedy that can be truly depended upon for the entire Cure of those Maladies.

Nor can the whole Materia Medica afford a quicker or more certain Cure for common Coughs and Colds; but the great Character this most noble Chymical ELIXIR has so fully gain'd, for the direct and infallible Cure of Consumptions and ASTHMA's, &c. has occasioned many Attempts to counterfeit it; be careful therefore to have the Right, which may be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, &c. 5 s. a Bottle with Directions, and at no other Place in England.

The uncommon Success, near Forty Years last past, of so much famed and only true Original

ROYAL CHYMICAL WASH-BALL,

FOR beautifying the Face, Neck and

Hands; hath induced many Envious Persons, not only in every Part of London, but in many Places in the Country to sell a Counterfeit White Ball (which may prove prejudicial as well as ineffectual) in Imitation of the true one.

To prevent as much as possible any Mistakes in Prejudice to our Customers, we give this special Notice, That the True Sort are now sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue and Boy, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mr. Giles's, a Millner, at the Blue Ball near the Inner Temple Gate in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Ball, or 12 to the Dozen, but no Allowance for less than 12 Balls at a Time, nor will they ever be sold any where else, except Notice be first given in their Advertisements of it.

Their true and real Virtues have been sufficiently attested in all the Years that they have been Sold by Publication, and more so, as they are still more than ever used and admired by both Sexes of the best Quality, and many Thousands of Gentlemen and others, for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be paralleled by any Wash or Wash-ball, &c. of any Kind or Form; for these Balls are indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ringworm, Morpew, Sunburn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits, or Redness of the Face, Small-Pox, and keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness, they soon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in dressing the Head, not only giving a most exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Smell without the least Grain of Mercury, and may be safely used for their Safety.
